

As one commentator rightly observed, every Christian and every Christian Minister has blind spots and holds to some wrong theology. However, this is true even where false ministers are concerned. They often have a lot of truth in their teachings. Consider the following short discourse from a well-known Christian Cult leader without reaching the same conclusion:

Love surely tempers even God's judgements. What a wonder it is that He who is a consuming fire, He who is unapproachable light, is also the personification of love!

He postpones His judgements against sin while pleading with sinners to repent. He freely offers mercy to all who will repent. He shows longsuffering and goodness even to many who steel their hearts against Him.

Divine love not only keeps divine wrath in check while God appeals to the sinner – but it also proves that God is just when He finally condemns.
