ESTABLISHING A ROME REVIVED

In the Book of Daniel chapter seven we meet a Beast with ten horns. We are told that it represents the fourth world empire, after Babylon, which was the Roman Empire:

After this I saw in the visions by night a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth and was devouring, breaking in pieces and stamping what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that had preceded it, and it had ten horns.

(Daniel 7:7-8)

Further on in that same chapter Daniel tells us that the ten horns are ten kings or leaders that shall arise out of this fourth kingdom:

As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise and another shall arise after them. This one shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings.

(Daniel 7:24-25)

These are the same ten kings encountered in chapter two of Daniel, represented by the “ten toes” on the giant statue:

Whereas you saw the feet and toes, partly of potters' clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet the strength of the iron shall be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay.

(Daniel 2:41-42)

These “ten toes” and “ten horns” represent a revived form of the ancient Roman Empire in the last days, made up of some type of coalition of nations or leaders. We know it will happen in the end times because the Scriptures are clear it is “in the days of those kings” that Christ will return to establish His Millennial Kingdom:

And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.

(Daniel 2:44-45)

While Daniel was observing the vision of the ten future kings, he saw something else, that another king, a “little horn,” rose up among them. The little horn is a clear reference to the Antichrist. And the text implies that he will appear on the scene when the revived Roman Empire of ten divisions is fully in place. Daniel wrote:

I was considering the horns, when another horn appeared, a little one coming up among them; to make room for it, three of the earlier horns were plucked up by the roots. There were eyes like human eyes in this horn, and a mouth speaking arrogantly.

(Daniel 7:8-9)

The Apostle John also describes this ten-nation union from a revived Roman Empire that will form the power base of the Antichrist. He wrote:

And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

(Revelation 17:12-13)

Bible commentators have long speculated about what this revived form of ancient Rome will be and when it will be at the height of its power. Since the Second World War many prophecy teachers have viewed the growing European Union or the United Nations Organization as a fulfilment of these prophecies.

But friends, the ancient Roman Empire is already in full bloom and the EU and the UN are just a part of it!

A close study of history reveals that since the removal of the last emperor of ancient Rome, the popes of Rome have waged a bloody war to regain political, religious and economic control over the world and they have completely succeeded.

You will be absolutely amazed to discover how much the Vatican owns and controls globally. And you will be even more amazed at how her immense political, economic and religious power is clearly spelled out in Scripture.

Daniel describes its military power, and in chapters seventeen and eighteen of the Book of Revelation, the Apostle John accurately describes its religious and economic power, so accurately that even the colours purple and scarlet of the Roman Catholic clergy are given.

Therefore, there is no mistaken that the Great City described by John is Vatican City, not America or Jerusalem or physical Babylon. These countries do not fit the description given in these two chapters of Revelation as accurately as the Roman Catholic Church does.

HER IMMENSE WEALTH AND POWER

Apart from control over governing bodies such as the United Nations, and the European Union, the Vatican has taken complete control over the world's education system, the mainstream media and publishing houses, including Christian, the trade industry, the whole world of technology, the world's health system, and over most of the world's governments, intelligent agencies, militaries and religions.

They have managed to submit the armies of many nations under their control by placing their Knights of Malta in the highest positions of their military and Defence Departments.

And they have taken control of governments through their control over their money supply. The Vatican currently controls all of the world's financial organizations, such as the World Bank, the European Central Bank, the International Monetary Fund, the International Bank of Settlements, the Federal Reserve Bank, to mention a few.

They have also acquired many smaller and private banks from many nations around the world through many carefully, planned in advance, world crisis. Therefore, it is logical to say that only the Vatican will be able to control who buys and sells in the New World Order.

Getting back to their power over nations, many experts have warned us continually that candidates who win the elections over the countries they control is determined in advance and that they alternate parties just to keep both sides content.

The truth of their statements can be observed in the contradictory behaviour of most politicians and presidents once in power.

Concerning the Vatican's accumulated wealth, it runs the tourist industry, the entertainment business, the fashion business, and owns all the major pharmaceutical companies. According to one reliable source, it also has "billions of shares in the most powerful international corporations such as Gulf Oil, Shell, General Motors, Bethlehem Steel, General Electric, International Business Machines," and so forth.

According to another article, the Vatican has not only the many acres of Vatican City; it is estimated to possess a little less than two hundred million more acres of various lands throughout the world. With regards their possession of abundant land and rainforest in South America, it was taken in exchange for payment of incredible financial debt, that the international bankers themselves got these nations into.

The Roman Catholic Church is the largest non-governmental provider of higher education in the world. It owns thousands of secondary schools, Catholic colleges and universities. She is also the largest non-governmental provider of health-care services in the world, owning thousands of clinics, hospitals, homes for the elderly etc. Think of the income from all these activities. The Apostle John was not exaggerating in his description.

Concerning the Middle East

What concerns the Middle East, Rome controls the major countries in that region, such as Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Israel. This explains why the leaders of Israel chose the so-called Star of David that was used in the occult for centuries to represent the new-born Jewish State.

The hexagram is on the Rothschild Coat of Arms. Mayer Amschel Bauer, founder of the Rothschild banking dynasty, placed a red hexagram over the door of his business to identify it. They funded the Zionist Movement in 1896 and then gave orders to the leaders of Israel in 1948 to adopt the hexagram as their national symbol.

The Jesuits wanted the Holy Land for important economic, religious and political purposes. For one, they wanted to gain control over Middle Eastern Oil. And as the world has witnessed, over the last few decades they have overthrow many leaders of nations in that region and replaced them with puppet leaders who will help bring their country and people into the New World Order.

Think of it, with the help of Western Nations, they have removed the leaders of Iraq, Libya, Egypt and Afghanistan and stolen their oil reserves.

Now to get their hands on the Holy Land, they needed a scheme to make it appear legitimate to the unsuspecting world. So they orchestrated World War One and World War Two, during which period they used their Knights of Malta, Hitler and Mussolini, to slaughter their fellow Jews in Europe.

The result of the Holocaust was the establishment of a new Jewish State, authorized by the International Community to be a safe homeland for the dispersed Jewish people as a sort of compensation for the horrors of the Nazis.

This is not to say the rebirth of the State of Israel in 1948 is not a fulfilment of biblical prophecy and in perfect harmony with God's will for the dispersed Jewish people. It certainly is, but it does not exclude that He used these apostate Jews and their wealth and influence to bring about His plans!

There are many prophecies yet to be fulfilled concerning the Jewish people. Therefore, their being placed under the secret government of the Black Pope – run by his Masonic Jewish leaders, in conjunction with his Masonic Talmud Rabbis – and their being set up to be ultimately betrayed once again by their own people, is all part of God's prophetic plan. Speaking of their ultimate destiny the Apostle Paul writes:

Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

(Romans II:30-33)

Her Religious Influence

The Jesuit-run Vatican has written and published numerous history books, which they have revised and rewritten, including most of the history textbooks that are used in the public schools of Western Society and beyond. Consequently, most people do not know the full truth of what really happened in the past and of what is really happening in the world today.

As stated above, they have established the largest network of schools, colleges and universities around the world. This is another means through which they are able to hide the true history and indoctrinate the minds of children with their ideology. They have also infiltrated and taken control of many Protestant universities that now mock Christianity and teach their liberal doctrines and Marxist ideals.

They use their colleges and universities to find people they can use to serve their agenda, whom they then promote with great wealth and influence. And as we shall see later, this includes people who define themselves Christians. The Vatican has also tampered with some versions of our Bible and spread lies about Christian leaders and reformers to discredit their witness.

Forced to Go Undercover

So many people are unaware that the Jesuits were considered by many nations to be the most dangerous organization in the world. They were expelled from a total of eighty-three nations between the fifteenth and nineteenth centuries, even Catholic ones, and from some of them more than once!

They were expelled because of their continuous attempts to create revolutions, destroy monarchies and overthrow the governments of the nations, often where they were working as missionaries. But while posing to be of Christ, they persecuted true Christians and assassinated kings to insert Catholic leaders in their place.

There is also clear historical evidence that the Jesuits instigated and participated in the many revolutions of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, including the French and American. They also instigated and participated in the Russian Bolshevik Revolution.

They instigated and participated in the European Jewish genocide, confiscating much of the wealth of their victims, and the Russian Orthodox Christian genocide, to name just some. They were also involved in the American Civil War and the assassination of President Lincoln and President Kennedy.

Naturally, with such an evil reputation, when the Jesuit Superior General took control of the Vatican in 1798 circa, he could not rule it openly. This led to them creating numerous front organizations which they use to hide their involvement in world affairs.

These front organizations are modelled like an army, with high-level leaders, mid-level leaders and members at the bottom. The Society of Jesus itself is structured in this way. It is worth noting that Hitler modelled his SS on the Jesuits structure.

At the bottom level in the Jesuit organization are the Jesuit priests. They perform Christian works of charity in their community. Seeing these good services, no one would suspect what goes on at the top of the Power Pyramid and the Vatican's true nature.

The Jesuits used the Jesuit professor Adam Weishaupt to create the Bavarian Illuminati, another front group. This organization was needed to recruit and lure the Freemasons to fight in the French Revolution, which, among other things, was started to bring the Vatican to its knees and force the Pope of Rome to reinstate the Jesuits, as they had been suppressed by Pope Clement the fourteenth from 1773 onwards.

It is interesting that the United States one-dollar bill has 1776 on it, the exact year Adam Weishaupt founded the Bavarian Illuminati. Together with the year, the dollar also has Illuminati symbols such as the pyramid with the all-seeing eye, which points to a New World Order.

Conclusion

The above is just a brief overview. Nevertheless, it is enough to show how the ancient Roman Empire has risen again to a place of world dominion and, consequently, the stage is set for the emergence of the man who will lead it!

Will he come out of the religious part of Babylon the Great or out of one of the many organizations under her control, like the EU or UN? To better answer that question we need to first examine WHO or WHAT the Apostle John is referring to when he speaks of the Beast receiving a fatal head wound and of it being healed and WHEN all this happens. This will be the subject of the next two chapters.

DEATH AND RESURRECTION WHO OR WHAT?

In the Book of Revelation chapter thirteen and chapter seventeen we meet Daniel's Roman Beast once again, or rather the extension of it, and also some important additional information. The Apostle John wrote:

And I saw a beast coming out of the sea. He had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on his horns, and on each head a blasphemous name. The beast I saw resembled a leopard, but had feet like that of a bear and the mouth like that of a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority.

(Revelation 13: 1-3)

As well as the “ten horns” mentioned in Daniel's prophecies this Beast has “ten crowns on his horns” and “seven heads.” John continues:

One of the heads of the beast seemed to have a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was astonished and followed the beast. Men worshipped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshipped the beast and asked, “Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?”

(Revelation 13:3-5)

Many fascinating interpretations have been given to these portions of Scripture and to the timing of the events described. Some interpret the Beast to be a reference solely to the Antichrist and that it is he who receives the fatal wound yet lives.

These teach that he will present himself to the Jewish people as their long-awaited Messiah when he appears, and that he may even allow them to build a Third Temple in Jerusalem or lead the project himself. However, later on, he will enter into this Temple and desecrate it and declare himself to be God.

At this time, many Jews will recognize the Antichrist as an anti-messiah and assassinate him with a knife wound to the head. He will then go directly to Hades – the place where those who rejected Christ wait for their ultimate consignment.

And just as Satan tempted the Son of God by offering Him the kingdoms of the world as a reward for worshipping him, Satan will make the same offer to the Antichrist in the depths of the Abyss, to which he will gladly accept. In return the devil will infuse him with satanic power and wickedness.

When he ascends from Hades with his mortal wound miraculously healed, the False Prophet will use the event to convince the world to worship the Antichrist, as described by John in Revelation:

It deceives the inhabitants of earth, telling them to make an image for the beast that had been wounded by the sword and yet lived.

(Revelation 13:14b-15)

Finally, this is all believed to happen in the future, during the seven-year Great Tribulation. However, other Bible teachers believe the Beast refers to both the Antichrist, and the kingdom over which he will rule – the revived Roman Empire we spoke of previously.

Biblical Evidence the Beast Is Two in One

First, as stated above, the Apostle John presents this Beast as an extension of the fourth Beast of Daniel chapter seven, where the four Beasts represent empires rather than men. In addition, when Scripture speaks of any kingdom, often it is inseparable from its king or ruler – they are always one and the same thing. In fact, Daniel often uses the term king and kingdom interchangeably. For example, in chapter seven of Daniel the Prophet is told by an Angel that the four Beasts he had seen in his vision represent four kings:

As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth.

(Daniel 7:17)

However, a little further on in that same chapter, speaking of those four Beasts again he calls them kingdoms:

As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, that shall be different from all the other kingdoms.

(Daniel 7:23)

We find additional support for king and kingdom being used interchangeably in Revelation chapter seventeen, where John says:

This calls for a mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated, also, they are seven kings, of whom five have fallen, one is living, and the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain only a little while. As for the beast that was and is not, it is an eight but it belongs to the seven, and it goes to destruction.

(Revelation 17:9-12)

John tells us that the “seven heads” on the beast also represent “seven kings,” of which “five have fallen, one is now, and the other is still to come.” Most agree that they refer to those great world empires from the time of the original Babylon of Nimrod’s day to our present time. They are Assyria, Egypt, Babylon, Medo–Persia, Greece and Rome.

The point is this: John calls these empires “kings,” but they are really kingdoms, proving once again that they are one and the same thing!

Therefore, having established the true identity of the Roman Beast, the “fatal wound” could easily be a reference to the kingdom of the Beast; to a blow the revived Roman Empire received in its development and its healing to the global power it is today!

While the idea that the Antichrist is killed and comes back to life is very interesting and possible, as we shall demonstrate, the biblical and historical evidence strongly supports the latter interpretation.

THE MOST FATAL BLOW

There are generally three interpretations given for the head wound and healing of the seventh kingdom in John's vision. The first is that it happened with the collapse of ancient Rome by the Vandals and it being brought back to life in the Roman Catholic Church – the transition of the Roman emperors to the popes of Rome.

The other is that came about in 1796, when the French troops commanded by Napoleon Bonaparte defeated the Papal Army and occupied the Papal States. In 1798 A.D, upon his refusal to renounce his temporal power, Pope Pius was taken prisoner and transported to France, ending the reign of the Papacy.

This view teaches the healing of the wound commenced in that very period, when the Jesuits finally succeeded in completing their plan to reinstate themselves in a position of power over the popes of Rome, a position they have been in ever since, and in their taking Rome to the immense political, economic and religious influence it has today.

However, the real blow to the Beast, dear reader, came about during the explosive Protestant Reformation! Notice John is careful to point out the means by which the wound to the head came about. He says it is by "the sword." The word sword is used frequently in Scripture to refer to the Word of God.

Notice John also uses the definite article the not the indefinite article a. This means the sword is one of a kind, and it was the means by which the Reformers greatly weakened the power of the Roman Catholic Church.

Now the healing from that wound was a long and hard process that still continues to this day. It began with the Inquisitions, but when cruelty and torture failed, the General of Rome changed his tactics. INFILTRATION was the next weapon!

Over the last few decades Rome has raised up an army of charlatans and made them the most respected and prosperous people in the Evangelical world. Their goal was and is to infiltrate the mainstream Protestant Church and destroy it from within.

This is not just a personal opinion; it has been the experience and opinion of both the Christian and secular world over the last few decades, including a former Jesuit priest himself, Dr Alberto Rivera. In the introduction to Edmond Paris' popular book, The Secret History of the Jesuits, he makes statements that amazingly withstand the scrutiny of history. He said:

Ignatius de Loyola created the Jesuits to secretly accomplish two major goals for the Roman Catholic Institution: One, universal political power, and two, a universal church in fulfilment of the prophecies of Revelation ...

By the time Ignatius de Loyola arrived on the scene, the Protestant Reformation had seriously damaged the Roman Catholic System. Ignatius de Loyola came to the conclusion that the only way his "church" could survive was by enforcing the canons and doctrines on the temporal power of the pope and the Roman Catholic institution; not by just destroying the physical life of the people alone as the Dominican priests were doing through the Inquisition, but by infiltration and penetration into every sector of life.

Protestantism must be conquered and used for the benefit of the popes. That was Ignatius de Loyola's personal proposal, among others to Pope Paul III. Jesuits immediately went to work secretly infiltrating ALL the Protestant groups, including their families, places of work, hospitals, schools, colleges, etc. Today the Jesuits have almost completed that mission.

The Bible puts the power of a local church into the hands of a Godly pastor. But the cunning Jesuits successfully managed over the years to remove that power into the hands of denomination headquarters and have now pushed almost all the Protestant denominations into the arms of the Vatican. This is exactly what Ignatius de Loyola set out to accomplish: a universal church and the end of Protestantism.

We asked the question earlier regarding which part of Revived Rome, Babylon the Great, will the Antichrist come; whether from the religious division or from the political or economic part. Finally, we will discuss this fascinating topic.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF

I find it interesting what Dr Rivera says about Ignatius de Loyola creating the Jesuits to secretly accomplish two major goals for the Roman Catholic Institution, a “universal political power” and “a universal church.”

No doubt Loyola’s goal included a leader for his world government – the Grand Master, the Superior General himself!!! Add to this the popular current opinion that the next pope will probably finish what Pope Francis started and take on an even greater political role as well as his role as religious leader.

For the reader who is not familiar with the Society of Jesus, their leader, the Superior General is also known as the Black Pope. This name is given because of the black garments he wears. This individual already rules over the pope we see publicly, the White Pope, currently Pope Francis.

Many say this is the first Jesuit pope in the history of the Roman Catholic Church. I would be inclined to think he is the first declared Jesuit pope. But whatever the case, the fact that they have openly declared Pope Francis is a Jesuit, is a strong indication of how far they have come in their agenda for world control. They would never have made public such a thing in the past due to the world’s animosity and distrust towards the Society of Jesus.

Back to our main theme. There are many other important reasons why it is highly probable the future Antichrist will be the Jesuit Superior General. However, I feel it is not necessary to list them all, just the most obvious.

The Mystery of Iniquity

People often wonder who is at the top of Rome's Power Pyramid. Some suggest the Rothschilds are only servants of the Jesuit Superior General, used by him as a front group to deflect blame away from the Vatican.

The case is the exact opposite! The Rothschilds are the Jesuits and they have used the Papacy for centuries as cover to gather the world under their authority, and even more shocking, to prepare the way for the Antichrist to take his seat in the Temple of God, the visible Church, and declare himself God. If you would like a more in depth teaching on this subject, we recommend a sermon by the late David Wilkerson, Falling away to the Antichrist.

What we have said about the Rothschilds has become so public that many religious and secular Jews denounce them, and their kin the Rockefellers, and say they are not real Jews but "the rabble," who left Egypt with the Israelites during the Exodus.

Other Jews, religious and secular, together with some Christian writers, claim the Jesuit Rothschilds are descendants of Turkish Khazars from Eastern Europe, who supposedly converted to Judaism in the eight century, making them Jews by religion not blood. These Turkish Khazars, they say, were descendants of the Herodians who originated from the ancient Edomites.

But neither of these are true! The Jesuits are Abraham's physical descendants and their history did not start at the Protestant Reformation. It goes further back, all the way to the time of Christ. The Jesuits are, in fact, the Pharisees!

And that their ultimate goal is to destroy the Church of Christ should come as no surprise. The New Testament writers continually speak of the deep-seated hatred this group had towards Messiah and His followers. The Apostle Paul writes:

For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, for you suffered the same things from your own compatriots as they did from the Jews, who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out; they displease God and oppose everyone by hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. Thus they have constantly been filling up the measure of their sins; but God's wrath has overtaken them at last.

(1 Thessalonians 2:14-17)

And there is something else we need to take note of when we read the Gospel's account of these religious leaders of Jesus' day. They actually knew He was the Messiah! This is clearly revealed in the Parable of the Wicked Tenants. Matthew records Jesus words:

But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, "This is the heir; come let us kill him and get his inheritance."

(Matthew 21:38-39)

This is not to say that all from the Jewish religious establishment in Jesus' day, or those in our day, were evil. The Bible tells us that some of them condemned and sentenced Jesus to death out of ignorance, and that many others of the religious establishment actually believed in Him, but out of fear and love for man's glory would not confess it openly. But as with most hierarchical organizations, Satan's servants worm their way in and eventually take over. This came from the mouth of Jesus Himself:

Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot accept my word. You are from your father the devil, and you choose to do your father's desires.

(John 8:43-44b)

And again, in the Book of Revelation Jesus says:

I know the slander on the part of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

(Revelation 2:9b)

Note, Jesus is not saying these Jews are not Abraham's physical descendants, although some have interpreted it that way. The Lord is actually describing who to Him is a true Jew – those who are not only Abraham's physical descendants, but also do what Abraham did!

Would the Jewish People Receive Such a Figure?

For those Jews who are actually expecting a messiah, I believe a great number of them would. Edmond de Rothschild is already highly honoured by many Jews in Israel as the father of Israel. His portrait appears on one of Israel's banknotes. Rothschild Boulevard in Tel Aviv was named after him to reflect the Rothschild's generosity in creating the State of Israel.

Moreover, should the Antichrist during the seven-year tribulation period openly confess how he and his forefathers finally caused the visible Christian Church to set aside the Name of Jesus in the name of love, peace and tolerance, they would sing his praises. He may even boast of his having done away with the Whore of Babylon after using her for so long to accomplish his purpose!

By the way, this process has already begun. There are many conservative Catholics who actually believe Pope Francis is the Antichrist because of the damage he is doing to the reputation of the Roman Catholic Church and his abolishing her religious traditions.

Because of it there is a war going on inside the walls of Vatican City that can no longer be kept secret. The late Cardinal Pell, a Vatican Insider, who died during hip replacement surgery, described the environment in Rome and around the circle of Pope Francis as "a toxic nightmare."

The Question We All Want to Know

And when will all this take place? Will it be after the death of Pope Francis or further down the line? This we cannot say with certainty. It is interesting, however, that many Catholics, and not a small number of Protestants, actually believe Pope Francis is the last pope. This is based on an extra-biblical prophecy from an Irish Roman Catholic bishop named Saint Malachy.

Apparently, it was his dream to travel to Rome to meet the Pope, at that time Pope Innocent II. Malachy left Ireland on June 12, 1139 and arrived in May of the following year. But when he at last reached Rome, he was absolutely amazed and disgusted at the corruption and extravagance that surrounded Pope Innocent.

After this he began to write the Prophecy of the Popes. The work consists of a series of 112 Latin verses, or mottos, each of them describing every pope that would exist from Pope Innocent II to the final pope.

Malachy said there was going to be 112 future popes and that pope 112 would be the last pope, which is actually Pope Francis. The prophecy of Malachy also says that he who takes the crown after Pope Benedict XVI, that was Ratzinger, shall be named Petrus Romanus and that he will actually be the False Prophet of biblical fame that helps give rise to the Antichrist. The Prophecy of the Popes also says that after the election of Petrus Romanus, Rome will burn and Armageddon of Revelation will begin.

A Closing Remark

Dear reader, we will finish up with one other important point. By saying the Superior General will become sole leader in the Vatican in the future, we would prove the Christian brothers and sisters of previous generations were not entirely wrong in attributing the Office of the Papacy and the nature and actions of the popes as a direct fulfilment of the prophecies of Daniel, Paul and John!
