

According to the ancient biblical prophecies, the revived form of ancient Rome will consist of a division of ten nations or leaders, which will be the power-base for the coming Antichrist's global government in the last days. The Prophet Daniel specifically describes it in these terms:

As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them. This one shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings.

(Daniel 7:24-25)

Hundreds of centuries later the Apostle John slightly elaborates:

And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they are to receive authority as kings for one hour, together with the beast.

(Revelation 17:12-13)

A close examination of ancient and modern historical events, clearly reveals this kingdom is completely back together again. So the theological question under discussion at the moment is what this division consists of, and when it occurs on the prophetic timeline.

Some expositors suggest the Jesuits have already divided the world into blocks of power, only that it was done secretly and not to the visible eye.

The Apostle John speaks of being brought out into the wilderness to see Babylon the Great and this is interpreted to imply something hidden, something done behind closed doors.

This is very possible, considering that over the last century many important decisions concerning the future of our planet have been made by secret global groups behind closed doors, with literally no media coverage whatsoever.

However, in 1972 the Club of Rome openly produced a report entitled Limits to Growth. According to this report, the world should be divided into ten regions, modelled on the European Union. It divided the world as follows:

North America

Europe

Japan

Australia and the Pacific region

Russia

South America

Muslim Middle East

Africa

India and region

China

Naturally, many of the boundaries of the plan have changed since then, but its coming together has certainly been observed. For instance, Europe has made rapid progress, becoming the most advanced region, especially in terms of integration.

One reliable source reported that the North American Union has become an international entity encompassing the nations of Canada, the United States and Mexico. And that after the plan was drawn up, Russia set up a customs union with Belarus and Kazakhstan and spoke of plans to bring Ukraine into the union, and that if she succeeded, most of the former Soviet Union would be back together.

While we are on the subject of Russia, we need to seriously question what the majority of News Reports say about her “hard struggle” against the Western Powers and the Globalist Elite. The two identical emblems below will tell you why.

Russian Federation Emblem

Rothschild Red Shield Emblem

How clearer could this be? The same international bankers planning and funding both sides of the war. The Jesuits took control of Russia through the Bolshevik Revolution, after which untold numbers of Christians were slaughtered.

They took control over the British and other European economies during the Napoleonic Wars. And they have also controlled China for many centuries!

In the sixteenth century, they sent their high-level leaders into the country under the guise of missionaries, to secretly take control of that nation. They now use the poor Chinese people for slave labour, weapons development and other abominable things.

So be warned, when you hear of all these threats from Russia and China. It is all a big Show.

Finally, in seeking to unravel the ten divisions of revived Rome, or a ten-nation confederation, there is one other point worthy of attention. John says these ten kings do not have a literal kingdom as such:

And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

(Revelation 17:12-13)

This could well mean that the division of ten is not of nations, but of leaders; leaders of divisions within the Vatican itself!

Question: How do we reconcile all this with the fact that the Bible clearly speaks of a great Asian Army, composed mainly of China, sweeping into the West to wage war with the Antichrist and his Western Coalition in the last days?

And if all these nations are under the authority of Rome, how do we reconcile this with the War of Gog and Magog spoken of by the Prophet Ezekiel, which many commentators interpret to be a coalition of Islamic nations led by Russia and Iran that will come against Israel in the last days, either before, at mid-point, or towards the end of the seven-year Great Tribulation?

First, the term Gog and Magog has been the subject of much discussion, especially since it also appears in the New Testament Book of Revelation, at the end of the Millennium. The idea that Ezekiel's prophecy is a reference to Russia at all has also been debated by many famous historians and archaeologists.

Still other Bible expositors believe the prophecy of Ezekiel does indeed refer to Russia, and so forth, the only difference being that they suggest it already had its fulfilment with the rebirth of the State of Israel in 1948!

It is public knowledge that the Rothschild family were instrumental in bringing this about and that they originated from those regions mentioned in Ezekiel's prophecy. There are also quite a number of Orthodox Jews world-wide who also hold to this idea.

With regards the Armies from the East, the answer hinges on the word against. But let us examine what the Scripture actually says:

The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up in order to prepare the way for the kings from the east.

And I saw three foul spirits like frogs coming from the mouth of the dragon, from the mouth of the beast, and from the mouth of the false prophet.

These are demonic spirits, performing signs, who go abroad to the kings of the whole world, to assemble them for battle on the great day of God the Almighty.

(Revelation 16:12-15)

Many of us have understood this scriptural text to mean the Western and Eastern powers gather to make war against each other at Armageddon and then forget their animosity. But this could just as easily mean that both these great world powers are gathering together with one accord to make war on the Son of God and His Heavenly Armies!! Listen to what John says further on in his vision:

Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against the rider on the horse and against his army.

(Revelation 19:19)

In previous generations, such a notion would have been inconceivable, but in today's world, with all the mind-controlling methods at their disposal, it would be perfectly normal.

To conclude our short examination, if what we have said on the subject so far is incorrect, there is no reason to believe that these super powers that have been secretly allied with Rome for decades will not break away and form a new military alliance in the years ahead. As usual, time will tell.
