

At the conclusion of the June 1992 United Nations Conference on Environment and Development in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, President George H.W. Bush and the leaders of 177 other nations signed a document known as Agenda 21.

Nations that pledged to take part are monitored by the International Commission on Sustainable Development and were encouraged to promote Agenda 21 at the local and regional levels within their own countries.

We were told it was the first global effort to take on the increasing problems destroying our planet, such as global warming, rising oceans, poverty, illiteracy, lack of awareness, overpopulation, social inclusion, economic growth, overconsumption, the marginalization of women, and more.

However, the real goal was something completely different. It was intended to pave the way for social, political, moral, educational and religious anarchy, the outcome of which will usher in their new world government and antichrist religion.

That this was the UN's true intent becomes obvious when we consider where that organization looked for a strategy to deal with the "increasing global problems" addressed at the 1992 Conference. They adapted the 10-Point Charter of New Age founder Alice Bailey as its foundation!

But how can we be sure the UN used Alice Bailey's Charter? We will start by providing some personal information. This woman founded the Lucis Trust, which before that was called Lucifer Publishing Company.

She described the majority of her work as having been telepathically dictated to her by a master of wisdom, or spirit entity, initially referred to as the Tibetan, but later identified as Djwal Khul.

Many also suggest Bailey was guided by founder of the Theosophical Society, Helena Blavatsky, considered the mother of modern occult thought and the most important avenue of Eastern teaching to the West.

And what was the goal of these two women? From their writings, it becomes obvious – the forming of a Luciferic One World government and religion. This is made even clearer when we discover both were well known Masonic leaders of their day, whose hidden agenda is exactly that.

Back to our question, it becomes evident the UN was guided by Alice Bailey's Plan when we discover she was a personal collaborator. She started a group called World Goodwill, an official non-government organization within the United Nations itself.

The stated aim of this group was preparation for the "reappearance of the Christ." Bailey also described the UN as the crucial vehicle in her vision for a complete spiritual and moral transformation of the world.

For the reader's attention, when this lady speaks of "the Christ," she is not referring to Jesus Christ, the Son of God, clearly portrayed in Scripture. She states this openly: "The Tibetan has asked me to make clear that when he is speaking of the Christ, he is referring to his official name as head of the hierarchy."

The second most important evidence the UN adopted Alice Bailey's Ten-Point Plan, and which no intelligent observer would deny, is that it has already been fully implemented.

This explains why many governments have legislated laws contrary to the Bible, and why many Christian Churches have compromised the Word of God and endorsed some, if not all, of these changes.

But why was there no public resistance? The implementing of Agenda 21 by the United Nations was not resisted by most people for various reasons. One, because after the events of 9/11 the general public was led to believe that in order to resolve the so-called "war on terror," laws must be changed immediately and steps taken for interfaith dialogue.
